

Twelve Weeks of Christmas

Week Five Commentary

Welcome to the pre-Christmas Contemplations. We are sending out these contemplations in preparation of the Christmas Retreat and the Retreat Program. As it is, the outer world demands that our minds pay attention to it! There is very, very little time to do the most important of tasks - develop an inner life. So, StillPoint presents just little reminders and just for those moments, the inner life is being nourished and being prepared for Christmas - the Transmission of Christ Light. It is so much easier for the "soul" to receive this Light if it has a little "softening up" prior.

Also, at the bottom of the Contemplation, the symbols of the triptych baner are explained.

Further, later this week we will resend Weeks 1-4 in a portrait format which will be easier for you to print and store in a paper folder.

Keep your Peace. That Peace will help calm the chaos and alleviate the suffering.

Only Love, Jerry
