

Contemplations

Hope is a knowing, not a wish, for things to come.
One of the great wisdom teachings of the Christ is Hope.
This is not a mere desire for things to come in the here and now.
It is far greater.
For He stated that this world is not His Kingdom.
His Kingdom is the Peace of His Presence within and that our true citizenship is with Him in Eternity
