

Contemplations

Faith Is the One Thing Necessary for Inner Peace

The continuous remembrance that all things come to us from God for our ultimate good – our evolution.

God comes to us as our life and how we respond to life and its circumstances is a reflection of how we respond to God.